

Programme

8h30 - 8h45 : Accueil/ Registration

8:45_9:00__ Welcome address by Professor Élisabeth Gavoille, Head of ICD research group

9:00_9:30__ Qualitative Interviewing: Strengths, Challenges and the Future

Professor Rosalind Edwards, University of Southampton, and Professor Janet

Holland, London South Bank University

9:30_9:50__ Contextualising Qualitative Interviews: Understanding Why and When People Take Part in Research

Dr Kahryn Hughes, University of Leeds, and Dr Anna Tarrant, University of Lincoln

9:50_10:10__ Questions and discussion + Tea/Coffee

10:10_10:30___ Reflexively considering the muted narratives of a desire for pregnancy and parenthood in teenage women's accounts of their journey to motherhood

Dr Sarah Bekaert, Oxford Brookes University, England

10:30_10:50___ Young Fatherhood: Qualitative Interviews and Ethical Considerations

Dr Carmen Lau Clayton, Leeds Trinity University

10:50_11:10__ Ethical Dilemmas Around Confidentiality in Qualitative Longitudinal Research Data: The Death of Dan

Professor Rosalind Edwards, University of Southampton

11h10_11:30__ Questions and discussion

11:30_13:30__ Lunch break

13:30_13:50__ 'Looking down?' and 'Looking up?' Issues of positionality and ethics when studying the 'poor' and 'rich' in social policy

Dr Kate Summers, London School of Economics

13:50_14:10__ Together or Apart? Do joint interviews and dyadic methods add value or are they a source of trouble and strife?

Dr Rita Griffith, University of Bath

14:10_14:30__ Questions and discussion

Liberté Liberté Liberté Liberté Liberté Liberté Liberté Liberté Liberté despression d'expression d'expression